

Level 2 Apprenticeships in Health & Social Care

Overview

Apprenticeships are a structured form of vocational training. If you want to earn your living choose apprenticeships. This qualification is aimed for employees working in care role such as care workers, day centre assistants, healthcare assistants, healthcare support workers or homecare assistants.

The programme

The Apprenticeship programme is a mix of real work and learning, combining valuable experience on the job with focussed and relevant training within 12 months duration. Level 2 Programme is designed and offered using a variety of flexible, models and patterns of delivery to meet learner and business needs, creating a real and positive impact for both.

LEARNING SKILLS AND OUTCOMES
Competence element	Level 2 in Diploma in Health & Social Care	Practical skills and knowledge used in the role
Technical element	Level certificate in preparing to work in adult social care	Skills and knowledge required to perform the role
Key skills element	Communication level 1 Application of number level 1	Written and verbal communication. Use of numerical data
Other additional study	Employment responsibilities and rights	Knowledge of the responsibilities and rights of workers, the role

Benefits to learners: Earn while you learn. A clear career path.

Benefits to employers: A more productive workforce – skilled, competent and committed. Apprenticeships make your Organisation more effective, productive and competitive.

Interested? Then contact Rupaal Care & Training Ltd on

Telephone: -07930076279/07958941239

Email: Info@rupaalcare&training.co.uk